Numb. 6674.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 14. to Saturday May 18. 1728.

St. James's, May 14.

THIS Day the Marquess Rangoni, first Minister and Envoy Extraordinary of the Duke of Modena, had a private Audience of Leave of His Majesty; to which he was introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards a private Audience of Leave of her Majesty in her Apartment; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Grantham, her Majesty's Lord Chamberlain, and conducted by the Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, May 15. This Day the Marquess Rangoni was introduced by the Master of the Ceremonies to a private Audience of Leave of his Royal Highness the Duke.

Whitehall, May 17.

On Wednesday the 15th Instant at Night, Mr. Avison one of His Majesty's Messengers arrived here. He was sent to Madrid, with the King's Orders for executing the Preliminaries on His Majesty's Part in the West Indies: And was dispatched from Madrid, the 30th of April, N. S. by Mr. Keene, His Majesty's Minister there, for Gibraltar; with the said Orders, and Duplicates of like Orders from the King of Spain to the Viceroy of Mexico, the Viceroy of Peru, the Commander of the Galleons, the Governour and Captain General of the Province and City of Cartagena, the Governour and Captain General of the Province of Terra firma, and the President of Panama, (those for the Governour of Buenos Ayres being to be sent by a Spanish Ship designed for that Place.) He delivered His Majesty's said Orders, with the Duplicates of the King of Spain's, to Captain Warren Commander of His Majesty's Ship the Solebay, who had been left at Gibraltar by Sir Charles Wager, on Purpose to proceed with the said Orders, when they should arrive, to the West Indies; and who sailed accordingly the 5th of May, N. S. with a fair Wind. Mr. Avison returned to Madrid the 10th Instant, N. S. from whence he was dispatched the 16th with Letters from Mr. Keene, giving an Account, that on the 7th Instant, N. S. their Catholick Majesties came from Aranjuez to the Buen-retiro. On the 8th the Prince of Asturias was taken at the Buen-retiro with an Indisposition, which on the 9th proved to be the Small-Pox; they came out very kindly, and when the Letters came away, he was as well as could be expected. The King of Spain having never had that Distemper, removed the 9th from the Buen-retiro, with the Queen and the Court, to the old Palace at Madrid. On the 11th Mr. Keene had an Audience of the King and Queen of Spain, and presented His Majesty's Letter in Answer to the King of Spain's Notification of the double Marriages, of the Prince of Asturias to Donna Maria Infanta of Portugal, and of Donna Maria Anna Infanta of Spain to the Prince of Brasil, and made suitable Compliments to their Catholick Majesties on that Occasion; to which their Catholick Majesties returned Answers full of Expressions of Esteem and Friendship for His Majesty.
